Dear Kern County Educator,

You are invited to take part in an Advanced Placement On-Line Planning session at The Learning Center, 2020 K St., Bakersfield, on April 5th from 11:30 – 3:30. The session is co-sponsored by the Kern County Superintendent of Schools Office, UC College Prep Initiative, and UC Merced. The program is at no cost to you and lunch will be provided. In addition, because there is planning time built into the afternoon, you can use AP Challenge Grant funds for teacher release time if necessary. We encourage you to bring coordinators, mentors, teachers, technology specialists and anyone at your schools who will be involved in the AP On-Line Program for the 2001 – 2002 school year.

Tentative Agenda:

- 11:30 Introductions and Working Lunch
- 12:00 AP Online Program Overview
AP Challenge Grant and Ed Tech Grant
- 12:45 Apex Learning Hands-on Demonstration
- 1:15 Break
- 1:30 2000 – 01 AP Online Kern County Participants Share Experiences
- 2:00 Questions / General School Planning Discussion
- 2:30 Individual School Planning Time

Please fill out and return the registration form to the University of California Center, Bakersfield by March 16th via fax (661-861-7952), mail (1300 17th St., 4th floor, Bakersfield, CA 93301) or email (lori.black@ucop.edu). Be sure to include an email address if available.
